

CELEBRATIONS

onestop english

Easter

Worksheet

Exercise 1: Egg and bunny facts

Match the information halves to make facts about Easter eggs and Easter bunnies

1. The first chocolate Easter eggs were produced in Germany and France in the 19th . . .
  2. Rabbits and hares have many babies so they are seen as a symbol of . . .
  3. In the past, people did not eat eggs in the week before Easter.
  4. In 2014, a man bought an old egg from a street market. It turned out to be the missing Third Imperial Easter Egg.
  5. Approximately 80 per cent of people eat the ears of their chocolate bunny . . .
  6. The world's most popular chocolate egg is Cadbury's Creme Egg.
  7. The egg was a symbol of life for the old Egyptians,
  8. Swiss chocolate makers Lindt went to court to stop other companies copying their famous gold chocolate bunnies.
  9. The countries that make the most chocolate in the world . . .
  10. Chocolate is made from cocoa beans.
  11. An Easter egg is the name of a hidden message or intentional joke in a film or computer game.
  12. The idea of the Easter bunny bringing eggs to children started in Germany.
-
- a. before any other part of its body.
  - b. are Switzerland, Germany, Belgium and the United States.
  - c. century. They were hard and bitter.
  - d. Greeks and Romans.
  - e. German immigrants took the idea to the US in the 18th century.
  - f. People decorated eggs from that week and gave them to children as Easter presents.
  - g. new life. This is why we have chocolate Easter bunnies.
  - h. West Africa produces around two-thirds of the world's cocoa beans. Nearly 45% come from the Ivory Coast.
  - i. They lost the court case and now other companies produce similar chocolate bunnies.
  - j. made by Faberge for the Russian royal family and worth 20 million pounds.
  - k. The name is used because finding these messages is like going on an Easter egg hunt.
  - l. Workers at Cadbury in Birmingham produce 1.5 million of these eggs every day.